

Inspire Performing Arts Call for a BOOST!

People always ask me, "How can we/I help?"

My usual response is, "Fill our seats, spread the word to increase our audiences, make a program ad purchase, get goodies at the concessions booth, or donate time and items when called for."

For ten years, this has been enough, but now these ways to help have been obliterated by the pandemic. After waiting a year for things to improve, we have decided to form a new plan and WE NEED YOU! We have created an Inspire Performing Arts (IPA) Boosters Program. All donations will go directly to our programming and are tax deductible. We need to get through this and allow our students to have the amazing learning opportunities they deserve even if they look a little different.

EASY AT 1 – 2 – 3!

STEP 1: Check out our Boosters Website hosted by the Inspire Foundation on the Classy platform of giving.

Our Mission: Inspire School of Arts & Science's Performing Arts Program provides a creative, challenging, and nurturing environment that offers passionate and focused students professional preparation for higher education and life-long learning in the arts.

Our programs work year-round to educate students and are fundamental to our performing arts curriculum.
At the most basic level, performing artists need to perform.

Thank you for considering boosting and our funding for the performing arts we love!

Sincerely,

Jarrah Myles (Inspire Production Director) on behalf of the Inspire Performing Arts students, Inspire Production Team, and Performing Arts staff.
